

Model United Nations of the University of Chicago Delegate Information Form, 1 of 3

Thank you for your interest in attending MUNUC 34! MUNUC offers a robust financial aid program, available to delegates who might otherwise be unable to attend conference due to financial constraints. It is our priority to offer the best possible educational experience for all our delegates – regardless of school or family financial situation. All delegates that attend MUNUC are eligible for financial aid.

- Conference fees, including the delegate fees.
- Room costs of staying at the Hyatt Regency, the conference venue.
- Travel expenses incurred in getting to and returning from conference

Our financial aid program is strictly need-based. To help us determine aid packages, we ask about your personal finances and available funding sources, among other questions. Fully recognizing the sensitivity of this information, we will keep all documents strictly confidential and use them for financial aid purposes only. However, we do ask that you attach to your application any available supporting documentation that will help us verify proof of need.
